NEW HARMONIES: CELEBRATING AMERICAN ROOTS MUSIC Web Resources

The following list of selected web links on roots music has been assembled to assist you in researching and developing your local programs. The information is organized according to the themes of each kiosk of the exhibition. If you have a web site for your institution, consider having a web special page(s) devoted to your New Harmonies programming, with some or all of the links below. Or set up a computer in your exhibition area where visitors can surf to these pages on their own.
