

Museum on Main Street
CREDIT LINE

Yesterday's Tomorrows: Past Visions of the American Future

The following credit line must appear in all printed material (brochures, invitations, programs, etc.) related to your showing of Yesterday's Tomorrows: Past Visions of the American Future:

Yesterday's Tomorrows: Past Visions of the American Future has been made possible in [name of your town, state, or institution] by the [name of your state humanities council].

Yesterday's Tomorrows was developed in association with the National Museum of American History, Behring Center as part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and the Federation of State Humanities Councils. Support for Museum on Main Street has been provided by the United States Congress, the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, and The Hearst Foundation.

We understand that in exhibition advertisements or on banners promoting the exhibition, it is impossible to include a credit line of this length. While we prefer that you include the credit line in its entirety, you may use the following abbreviated credit line in advertisements or on banners only:

Yesterday's Tomorrows is part of Museum on Main Street, a collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution and the [name of your state humanities council].